

Laguerre lines, cusp singularity and Dupin cyclides

Douglas Hilário da Cruz

UFG

douglashilariodacruz@gmail.com

Abstract: A curve on a surface is a Laguerre line if it is hyperosculated by its osculating circle at every point. Laguerre lines are defined by an implicit differential equation. In this talk we will discuss the geometry of the Laguerre lines.

Joint work with: Ronaldo Alves Garcia and Raimundo Cavalcante Neto.